

ur Wooltex Coat Event Is Marked By a Great Variety of Styles

This week we offer you many different styles from which you may choose your new coat.

These beautifully Tailored Coats are of the high quality that we feel proud to offer to our most particular customers.

All are of pure wool fabrics giving the greatest warmth with the least weight.

The linings are fine soft peau de cygne or satin. If, by any chance, they should wear out before the end of two seasons we will replace them for the asking.

Ours is the only store in Barre where you can buy Wooltex garments.

You've seen the Wooltex advertisements in the leading fashion papers with the pictures of Wooltex Coats and Suits. Come here and see the garments themselves.

Look for this label. That's your guarantee of good style, good workmanship and good wearing qualities.

CABOT.

Monday night, October 31, Cabot camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold an entertainment and box supper. An interesting program is being prepared, which is free. Ladies are requested to bring boxes, with lunch for two. These will be sold at auction. We expect some very good music and readings, and a "corking" farce, "Old Cronies," is to be given. A grand good time is assured and you don't have to "cash up" to get in.

See the new black dress skirts, all the style, for $2.98, at Vaughan's.

See the doll in O. J. Dodge's window to be given away at the Ladies of the Maccabees' fair.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Abbott's full line of fur scarfs and muffs should interest those who want furs.

If you need a little heavier underwear, the Frank McWhorter company has it at all prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver and two children left the city yesterday for Montreal, where they were called by the death of Mr. Oliver's brother, John.

The Dreamland Theatre company has procured for to-day two greatest Biograph headliners, accompanied by four other great comedy and dramatic pictures, which make a great program for the patrons Monday and Tuesday; also, Dupaw sings two beautiful song-hits. Don't miss seeing this all for five cents.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Fancy scarfs and shams on sale to-day, 25c each, at Vaughan's.

Ladies' coats, ladies' skirts and children's coats at Vaughan's.

The Altruists will meet with Mrs. Frank Cave Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

"Maish comforts" bring sunshine in the home. They are fluffy and warm. Get them at Perry's.

Conductor S. R. Colby, who was the only conductor on the Barre branch of the Central Vermont to strike when the train crews and conductors struck several weeks ago, resumed his old run on the train yesterday. Conductor Felton, who has been taking Conductor Colby's place, has gone to St. Johns, P. Q., to work.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1910.

Weather Prediction.
Fair to-night, Tuesday unsettled and warmer. Moderate variable winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Call at Vaughan's for furs.

See the Frank McWhorter company's line of overcoats for men and boys.

Miss Gladys Gale has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Boston.

The Designer style book for winter is now in; only 20 cents and a pattern with it at Perry's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Nichols, who have been visiting at the home of his brother, Constable M. B. Nichols, returned to-day to their home in Westfield, Mass.

A sewing machine and a few good men's and women's coats will be sold regardless of cost at the rummage sale in the Wheelock building this evening.

Rally day will be observed next Sunday at the Universalist church, both at the church service and the Sunday school. Special programs are being prepared for both services.

The committee of hospitality of the Universalist church will meet with Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Lynde Tuesday evening, to arrange a hospitality social, to be held the week following rally Sunday, October 30.

The union Sunday school in the Whenton district on the east hill held successful rally day exercises yesterday afternoon in charge of the superintendent, Miss Sutton. There were 31 children present and enjoyable exercises were participated in by the school, and C. S. Andrews addressed the school.

Harley F. Chaples and Miss Gertrude May Cleveland, both of Barre, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. E. Braisted. Mr. and Mrs. Chaples will reside in this city, the groom being employed as a granite cutter at the Jones Bros. plant.

A Fitch play is always characterized by novel settings and beautiful costumes. Being a master of stagecraft, it goes without saying that this remarkable playwright also chooses wisely in organizing a company of players. A happier combination, it is said, has never been had than that of "The Blue Mouse," which with a splendid cast, comes here next Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The meeting by men, for men, at Hedding Methodist church last evening proved to be one of the most interesting and largely attended by men ever held by the brotherhood. Dr. Thayer handled the subject, "Christian Knights of Pythias," in a very helpful way, giving the origin of this fraternal order and carrying throughout his eloquent discourse the thought of friendliness of men for men. This is the first of the series of sermons on the church and fraternal orders. Hedding male chorus rendered several selections in their usual good voice and pleased the large audience better than ever. Master Edmund Sanborn rendered a pleasing violin solo.

Following are a few of our Specials

The "Hartford Saxony" is considered the best American-made Rug on the market. Year by year it has become more difficult to obtain a genuine Oriental Rug. The Saxony has come to take its place. If you are interested in this High Grade Rug, write or telephone us and we will send you, free, our booklet—"American Rugs for Private Homes."

The "Lyon Worsted Rug" is a very high grade Rug, made in the Oriental patterns, and plain effects with shaded border. It is a very serviceable Rug.

The "Kremlin Seamless Wilton" Rug is a fine Rug without seams, made in all sizes; beautiful effects, both Oriental and two-tone; 9 x 12. Costs $40.00.

The "Royal Ka-Shan" Wilton Rug is a very high grade Rug and is made in the French Wilton effects. The manufacturers have this to say about it: "Guaranteed to be the highest grade that can be produced and so acknowledged by the trade."

The "Amazin Chenille Axminster" Rug is a seamless Rug and comes in plain effects with a shaded border. Very classy. 9 x 12. Costs $50.00.

The "Kalliston" Rug is a plain Rug with shaded border, seamless and reversible; made of fine wool stock. The colors are soft and pleasing and highly decorative. 9 x 12 costs $42.50.

The "Thread and Thrum" Rug is a heavy, artistic, reversible and durable Rug. They are now recognized as a standard of good taste. Seamless; made by hand in all sizes at the Thread and Thrum workshop. Medium price.

The English Mohair Rug comes only in plain colors with shaded border and is a very stylish Rug and wears well.

Among some of the cheaper grades are the Savalan, Trewan, Burtworth and Selkirk Wiltons, Victor and Oneida Body Brussels, Smith, Sanford, and Bigelow Axminster.

We always gave a good assortment of Persian and Turkish Rugs at medium prices. ALL GOODS DELIVERED FREE.
